Tech Conference & Career Guidance Seminar at The AIMS

The AIMS, in collaboration with Share International, successfully organized the Tech Conference & Career Guidance Seminar on March 13, 2025, for 10th and 11th students. The event aimed to equip students with knowledge about emerging career fields such as Cybersecurity, Digital Marketing, Graphic Designing, and E-Commerce.

Expert speakers provided valuable insights to the students. Safdar Rasheed delivered an informative session on Cybersecurity, highlighting career opportunities in the field and the essential skills required to succeed. Syed

Alley Haider offered a comprehensive overview of Graphic Designing, Digital Marketing, and E-Commerce, helping students understand the growing demand for these skills in the modern job market.

The session concluded with the distribution of Eid gifts among the participants, making the event both educational and memorable. The AIMS CEO Syed Intiaz Ali Rizvi extends his gratitude to Share International and all speakers for their valuable contributions to students' career development.

The AIMS Family Attends a Blessed Iftar Gathering

The AIMS family gathered for a spiritually uplifting Iftar on the 4th of Ramadan. The event fostered unity and love among attendees while embracing the blessings of the Holy Quran.

A key highlight of the evening was the presence of MAWA Trust, a dedicated organization. The event provided an opportunity to appreciate their invaluable contributions and express gratitude for their continuous support.

The gathering concluded with an inspiring speech by Syed Imtiaz Ali Rizvi, CEO of The AIMS and President of MAWA Trust.

In his address, he emphasized the importance of education, community service, and collective efforts in shaping a better future. He also reiterated MAWA Trust's commitment to empowering students through educational support and financial assistance.

The evening was a perfect blend of spirituality, gratitude, and community bonding, reinforcing the spirit of Ramadan.

The AIMS School & College Internally Releases it's Official Anthem's Audio Version

The AIMS School and College internally released the audio version of its anthem, written by faculty member Ma'am Syeda Ghazala Batool Jafferri. The event, hosted by Principal Roozi Ali, was graced by CEO Syed Imtiaz Ali Rizvi and Mr. Rafique Touheedi from Junior Jinnah Trust, who shared insights into their contributions to the composition and final touch-ups.

The entire AIMS family listened to and admired the anthem. Ma'am Ghazala expressed her gratitude to CEO Syed Imtiaz for appreciating her efforts and bringing her words to life. Following the successful internal release, the CEO and the media team decided to produce a video version. The media team will collaborate on visual content, and the anthem will be released externally soon

The AIMS Organizes Student Psychological Counseling Session by renowned Clinical Psychologist & Speech Therapist Dr. Anila Khan

The AIMS School and College Islamabad conducted a Student Psychological Counseling Session, led by Dr. Anila Khan, an international renowned trainer, consultant, clinical psychologist and speech therapist. The session aimed to address students' mental well-being, stress management, and emotional resilience.

Dr. Anila Khan provided valuable insights into handling academic pressure, building self-confidence, and maintaining a positive mindset. She emphasized the importance of open communication, self-awareness, and seeking help when needed. Students actively participated, sharing their concerns and receiving practical strategies to cope with challenges.

The session proved to be highly beneficial, equipping students with the tools to enhance their mental well-being and academic performance. The administration and students expressed their gratitude to Dr. Anila Khan for her guidance and encouragement in fostering a healthier mindset among students.

The AIMS Collaborates with The AIMS Alumni Association for an Enlightening Session on Islamic Values and Ramzan

The AIMS School and College Islamabad, in collaboration with The AIMS Alumni Association, organized a session for students on "Islamic Values and the Significance of Ramzan", delivered by renowned Islamic scholar Mr. Naeem ul Hassan Naqvi.

Mr. Naqvi emphasized the true essence of Ramzan, highlighting its role in self-discipline, gratitude, and spiritual growth. He motivated students to develop a habit of regular Quran recitation, understand its meaning, and implement its teachings in their daily lives. He also stressed the importance of seeking forgiveness, helping others, and strengthening faith through worship and good deeds.

The session left a profound impact on students, inspiring them to embrace Ramzan with sincerity and devotion. The AIMS School and College extends heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Naeem ul Hassan Naqvi for his valuable guidance and to The AIMS Alumni Association for their collaboration in making this session possible.

Final Term and Pre-Board Examinations Successfully Concludes at The AIMS School and College

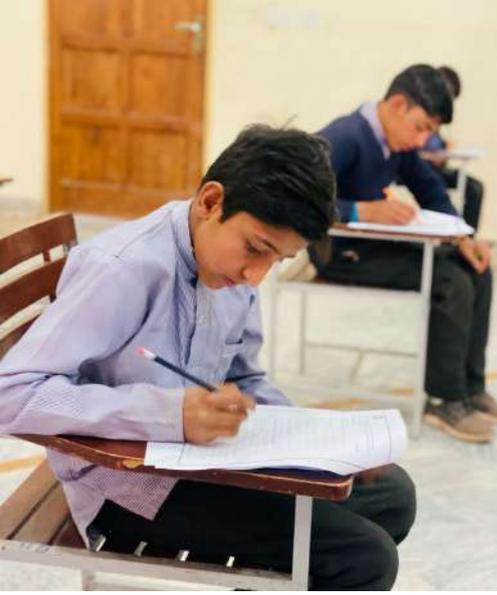

The AIMS School and College has successfully concludes its Final Term Examinations for PG to Grade 8 and Pre-Board Examinations for Grades 9 and 10. The exams, which commenced in March 2025, were conducted in a well-organized and disciplined manner.

Students from Playgroup to Grade 8 completed their final assessments, marking the conclusion of their academic session. Meanwhile, Grades 9 and 10 undertook their Pre-Board Exams, a crucial step in their preparation for upcoming board examinations.

Strict examination protocols were implemented to ensure a fair and smooth process. The administration emphasized punctuality, honesty, and adherence to examination guidelines. Teachers and invigilators actively monitored the exams, ensuring a conducive environment for students to perform at their best.

The AIMS administration extends its best wishes to all students as they await their results. Stay dedicated, stay confident, and keep striving for excellence!

Admissions in Full Swing at The AIMS School and College: Parents and Students Engage in the Process

The AIMS School and College is bustling with activity as the admission season is in full swing. Parents from various areas are visiting the campus to gather information about the academic programs, facilities, and overall learning environment. The admission process is structured to ensure a smooth experience for both students and their families.

Upon arrival, parents and guardians receive detailed guidance from the admission office regarding fee structures, curriculum, extracurricular activities, and school policies.

After gathering the necessary details, parents proceed with the registration process. Once registered, each student is assigned a specific date for the written entrance test. Following the test, students who qualify are invited for interviews conducted by the relevant administrative and academic teams.

During admission days, the school remains a hub of activity. Teachers and administrative staff work diligently to facilitate parents, answer queries, and assist with the admission formalities.

For further details, parents are encouraged to visit the admission office or contact the school's helpline.

PDC Session at The AIMS – Living a Purposeful Life Through the Quran

The AIMS School & College in administrative collaboration of The AIMS Alumni hosted a Professional Development Center (PDC) session on "How to Live?" led by Dr. Asad Ali Kazmi, a renowned translator. The session explored the Quranic perspective on leading a meaningful life, emphasizing faith, morality, and purpose.

Dr. Kazmi explained the importance of faith, morality, and responsibility, citing relevant Quranic verses to support his discussion. The interactive session encouraged students to reflect on their own lives and align their actions with the teachings of the Quran, fostering a deeper understanding of purposeful living.

The AIMS Holds Joint Academic Council Meeting to Outline Future Strategies

A meeting of the Joint Academic Council was held in The AIMS Library, chaired by Principal Roozi Ali. Teachers and Academic Coordinators from all schools and college participated in the meeting.

Principal Roozi Ali expressed satisfaction over the successful completion of the academic year 2024-25, extending gratitude to the management and teachers for their dedication. He also introduced strategies for the upcoming academic year, which were well received by the attendees.

Key initiatives discussed included the successful implementation of the STEM pilot program at the elementary level, as well as the forthcoming launch of Hasana Tarbiyah aimed at character development. Additionally, The AIMS will introduce new subject combinations in the Humanities stream to broaden academic opportunities for students.

The meeting concluded with an emphasis on plans to enhance assessment and evaluation methods, ensuring a comprehensive and structured academic framework.

The AIMS Holds Orientation Session for New Students

The AIMS School and College warmly welcomed newly admitted students and their parents in an Orientation Session aimed at familiarizing them with the school environment, rules, and academic policies.

Students toured the campus, met the administration, and learned about school regulations and extracurricular activities.

The session emphasized academic excellence, discipline, and character building. To make the newcomers feel special, they were presented with welcome gifts and cards.

Parents appreciated the initiative, praising the school's well-structured introduction and welcoming atmosphere. The event set a positive tone for an exciting academic journey ahead.

The AIMS Welcomes Students Referred by Marium School Foundation

The AIMS School and College hosted an orientation session to welcome students referred by Marium School Foundation. During the session, the administration introduced them to the school's rules and regulations and guided them on a comprehensive tour of the campus.

To support their academic journey, the CEO and Principal presented the students with book and copy sets, along with special gifts. The session aimed to ensure a smooth transition for the students into their new academic environment.

The AIMS extends its sincere gratitude to Marium School Foundation and its CEO Marium Shah for her cooperation in enrolling students at the institute. In shaa Allah, this collaboration will continue to flourish in the future.

The AIMS School and College and Marium School Foundation enters into MoU for Collaboration

We are proud to announce the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between The AIMS School & College and the Marium School Foundation, formalizing their shared commitment to providing quality education to underprivileged children—including those from low-income families and orphan students.

Key Objectives of the MoU:

1. Enabling disadvantaged children to receive formal schooling.
2. Offering free or subsidized education to reduce barriers to learning.
3. Enhancing educational opportunities through mentorship and skill-building programs.
4. Contributing to long-term social progress by uplifting youth and women through education.

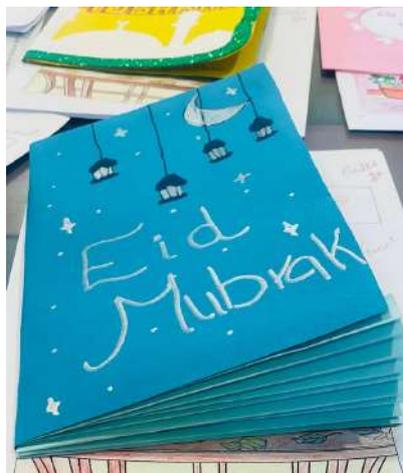

In its initial phase, AIMS has enrolled nine Grade 6 students referred by the Marium Foundation. An orientation session was held for the students and their parents, where they were welcomed with gifts, books, and stationery to support their academic journey.

This partnership marks a significant stride toward Education for All
