A Day of Innovation and Growth at The AIMS School & College

Inauguration of the New AIMS Library

The AIMS School & College proudly unveiled its state-of-the-art library, a transformative space designed to inspire learning and academic excellence. Featuring a rich collection of books, digital resources, and modern study areas, the library aims to cultivate intellectual curiosity among students and faculty alike.

The ribbon-cutting ceremony was honored by the presence of distinguished guests, including Allama Hasnain Abbas Gardezi, Air Commodore (Retd) Ali Muzaffar Zaidi, and other notable dignitaries. Their participation highlighted the significance of this milestone in enhancing the educational experience at The AIMS.

● Launch of the STEM Technology Pilot Program

CEO of The AIMS School & College, Syed Imtiaz Ali Rizvi, and CEO of Knodemy USA & VP Elevatech Mrs. Sonya Bukhari, signed an MoU to launch a 3-month STEM Technology pilot program for the students of The AIMS.

Delivered through Knodemy's CodeMentor platform and powered by Elevatech, the program is grounded in Project-Based Learning (PBL). The pilot program is set to begin in February 2025 with the objective of evolving into a full-scale, ongoing initiative.

At the end of the program, Knodemy + Elevatech will host a Tech Day Event to showcase students' projects.

The collaboration between The AIMS and Knodemy & Elevatech is set to revolutionize STEM education at the institution, empowering students with cutting-edge skills and knowledge.

● The AIMS: Leading the Way in Quality Education Policy Development

As a distinguished institution affiliated with the Federal Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education (FBISE), The AIMS is actively participating in the upcoming elections for the Board of Governors (BOG) of FBISE. The AIMS CEO, Prof. Syed Imtiaz Ali Rizvi, recently met with BOG member candidate Mr. Ahsan at the office of the Private Educational Society in Barakaho, Islamabad. The meeting, held in the presence of Mr. Raja Khalid Mahmood, President of the Private Educational Society (Barakaho Zone), focused on addressing the challenges faced by educational institutions.

Key suggestions for solutions were proposed, emphasizing measures that the FBISE BOG should consider implementing in the future to enhance the education sector. The AIMS remains committed to contributing towards the betterment of educational standards.

The AIMS School & College Represents at The Educational Leaders' Summit 2024

The AIMS School & College was honored to participate in the highly anticipated Educational Leaders' Summit 2024, which took place in Lahore. This landmark event, organized under the banner of the Educational Leadership and Management System (ELMS), Pakistan, served as a platform for innovation, collaboration, and growth in the educational sector.

With nearly 30 school leaders from the community coming together, the summit provided an excellent opportunity for healthy interaction and promising coordination to shape the future of education in Pakistan.

We are proud to share that Mrs. Saima Ali Rizvi represented The AIMS School & College at this prestigious conference, showcasing our dedication to excellence in education and leadership. Her participation reflected our commitment to contributing to discussions that influenced meaningful progress in the education system.

We look forward to the impactful exchanges and outcomes of this remarkable event.

The AIMS CEO Advocates for Education at Leaders Summit!

On January 11, 2025, the CEO of The AIMS School & College took the stage at the Educational Leaders Summit held at The Mark Hotel, Islamabad, to address a critical national challenge: the staggering 28 million out-of-school children in Pakistan.

In a powerful speech, the CEO Syed Imtiaz Ali Rizvi highlighted the transformative potential of education, stating, "Every child has the right to education. It's a moral obligation and the key to a prosperous, equitable future." This call to action resonated deeply with the audience, igniting meaningful discussions on innovative solutions to this pressing issue.

The event also marked a proud moment for The AIMS as the CEO was honored with an award by the summit's organizers in recognition of their tireless advocacy for quality education and inclusivity. This accolade reaffirms The AIMS' unwavering commitment to shaping a brighter future for all children, ensuring no one is left behind.

The AIMS New Anthem

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Syeda Ghazala Batool for composing a beautiful anthem for The AIMS School and College in the Urdu language.

This poetic masterpiece reflects her literary taste, depth of knowledge, artistic expression, and profound love for The AIMS.

The CEO has officially approved this anthem as the formal anthem of The AIMS.

We are deeply thankful to Madam Syeda Ghazala Batool and pray for her continued success and well-being.

Fourth Annual AIMS Alumni Meet-Up

The fourth annual meet-up of the AIMS Alumni Association took place on January 12, 2025. The gathering was filled with nostalgia as alumni reminisced about their time at AIMS. During the event, new office bearers were elected:

President: Ali Dost

Vice President: Ali Bakhsh

General Secretary: Emad Ali

Finance Secretary: Zulqarnain Haider

The event celebrated the enduring bond of the AIMS alumni community while paving the way for future collaborations.

● The AIMS Participates in Friends of USWA Meeting

The AIMS team actively participated in the "Friends of USWA Meeting," organized by the USWA Education System. During the event, the performance highlights and future plans of the USWA Education System were presented, offering a comprehensive overview of their journey and aspirations.

This gathering served as a platform for experience sharing and meaningful exchange of ideas among education leaders, fostering a spirit of collaboration and learning. The AIMS delegation had the privilege of meeting esteemed leaders, including Sheikh Anwar Ali Najafi, Chairman of the Jabir Bin Hayyan Trust, and Dr. Nazir, Director General of the USWA Education System.

These interactions were marked by discussions emphasizing the importance of partnership and commitment to collaboration for educational excellence. This engagement underscores AIMS' dedication to building strong alliances within the education sector, furthering its mission to drive impactful initiatives.

Welcome Back to School - The AIMS School & College

On January 13, 2025, students of The AIMS School & College returned to school after a refreshing 20-day winter break. The campus buzzed with excitement as students rejoined their classes, eager to embark on a new term filled with learning, growth, and opportunities.

The school community is thrilled to welcome back all students, and we look forward to another successful academic term ahead!
