Successful Conduction of Federal Board HSSC Exams at The AIMS School

The AIMS School and College has once again set a high standard by successfully conducting the Higher Secondary School Certificate (HSSC) exams under the Federal Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education (FBISE) in a safe, secure, and well-organized environment. With thousands of students participating, the entire exam session remained smooth and incident-free. Exceptional arrangements were made to ensure a comfortable and disciplined environment for all candidates. Students wholeheartedly appreciated The AIMS for providing top-notch facilities during the exam days. From clean and quiet exam halls to responsive staff, every detail was managed with excellence. Students also praised the highly professional behavior of the school staff.

Parents and guardians, too, expressed their deep satisfaction with the arrangements. Many shared their gratitude for the administration's dedication, expressing that they felt confident and relieved seeing such a secure system in place for their children. "The environment was disciplined, the arrangements were perfect, and the staff treated our children with great care and respect," shared one of the parents. With its commitment to educational excellence and student care, The AIMS continues to win hearts and set benchmarks for academic institutions across the region. The successful completion of the Federal board HSSC exam is a proud moment for the entire AIMS team, students, and parents alike.

The AIMS School & College Hosts National-Level Finale of WISE Talks Public Speaking Competition

We are proud to announce that The AIMS School & College successfully hosted the Final National-Level Round of the WISE Talks Public Speaking Competition, a prestigious event organized by the Education Leadership and Management System (ELMS). The event took place with great enthusiasm and spirit, bringing together brilliant young minds from across Pakistan.

This national round marked a significant milestone in the WISE Talks journey, which began as a regional pre-qualification competition held earlier this year in Islamabad. Organized under the banner of ELMS, the competition aims to empower students to address real-world issues through creative and impactful public speaking. It is part of a broader international initiative, with the final global round scheduled to take place in Najaf Ashraf, Iraq at the end of 2025.

A National Gathering of Young Voices

The national event held at The AIMS School & College welcomed students from all across Pakistan, representing both boys' and girls' categories, competing in Urdu and English public speaking segments. The young speakers presented well-researched, thought-provoking speeches on topics ranging from social inequality and economic reform to healthcare challenges, education gaps, and environmental concerns. Their voices reflected awareness, clarity, and a strong commitment to the betterment of society—qualities that lie at the heart of WISE Talks.

Highlights and Guest Remarks

Chief Guest Mrs. Meher Naqvi praised the depth of talent among the participants. She encouraged the youth to continue striving toward innovation and uphold educational and moral excellence in all areas of life. In her address, she commended both ELMS and The AIMS for hosting such a purposeful and meaningful event that nurtures the next generation of thinkers and leaders.

Prof. Syed Imtiaz Ali Rizvi, CEO of ELMS and The AIMS, shared his insights on the broader impact of the competition. He emphasized that WISE Talks is not just a contest, but part of a global educational movement guided by the principles of learning, wisdom, and unity. With simultaneous events being held in other regions, Pakistan has emerged as a strong participant. He expressed confidence in the national winners and their potential to excel at the International Round in Najaf, and extended heartfelt thanks to all judges, guests, parents, teachers, and the ELMS and AIMS teams for making the event a success.

Director ELMS, H.I. Asghar Hussain Shaheedi, also addressed the gathering, highlighting the importance of continuous learning and personal growth. He reiterated the commitment of ELMS to continue organizing such transformative events in the future and acknowledged the contributions of all who made the event possible.

Director ELMS Mr. Zain Abbas explained the rules of competition and the criteria of judgement at the onset of the program.

Winners, Awards & Cultural Exchange

Following the speeches and evaluations, winners were announced and awards were distributed, celebrating excellence in delivery, content, and expression. The atmosphere was filled with pride and excitement as students were recognized for their hard work. To foster further unity and cultural exchange among participants and their families from various regions, a recreational trip to Murree was arranged, offering a joyful close to this unforgettable experience. While bidding farewell to the parents and students for the Murree recreational trip, Principal of The AIMS once again expressed their gratitude and took the opportunity to explain the holistic education system practiced in the institution assuring the parents that The AIMS will be happy to welcome their children for admission.

THE EVENT IN PICTURES

The AIMS Hosts Grand Dinner in Honor of Newly Elected Federal Board BOG Member

Islamabad, June 2025 - The AIMS School & College organized a prestigious dinner event to honor Mr. Hafiz Muhammad Basharat on his recent election as a Board of Governors (BOG) Member of the Federal Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education (FBISE). The event was marked by the attendance of prominent educationists and dignitaries from across Rawalpindi and Islamabad.

The gathering brought together senior representatives from key educational bodies including the Private Schools Management Association, Private Educational Society (PES), Minhaj-ul-Quran Education Network, Junior Jinnah Trust, and various other academic organizations. Principals, teachers, and administrative leaders from numerous institutions graced the occasion, reflecting a strong show of unity and celebration within the education community.

In his welcome address, Prof. Syed Imtiaz Ali Rizvi, CEO of The AIMS, congratulated Mr. Hafiz Basharat and the entire academic community on this significant electoral success. He praised Mr. Basharat as a dedicated and capable leader, expressing confidence in his ability to address the ongoing challenges facing the education sector. Prof. Rizvi emphasized the importance of collective action and unity among educators to protect institutional rights and improve the quality of education.

Delivering the keynote address, Mr. Hafiz Muhammad Basharat, who also serves as President of the Private Educational Society, thanked the educators for their trust and support. He pledged to work tirelessly in collaboration with educators, government officials, and the Federal Board to enhance governance and resolve pressing issues in the education system.

Additional addresses were delivered by Mr. Raja Khalid, President of PES Bhara Kahu Zone and Organizer of All Affiliated Institutions, and Mr. Raja Arshad, President of the Private Schools Management Association. Both leaders congratulated Mr. Basharat on his victory and reaffirmed their commitment to support him in his role on the BOG.

The event was concluded with the Presentation Shield to the Chief Guest Mr. Hafiz Muhammad Basharat by CEO The AIMS followed by special prayers for the oppressed students and teachers in Gaza, victims of ongoing conflict, and for the peace, security, and progress of Pakistan.

Baithat School & College Chiniot Delegation Visits The AIMS School & College

A group of enthusiastic students and teachers from Baithat School & College Chiniot recently visited The AIMS School & College for a focused educational exchange. The delegation was warmly welcomed by the Principal, administrative staff, and teachers of The AIMS. A guided tour included visits to modern science and computer labs, featuring live demonstrations that brought academic concepts to life. A highlight was the tour of the well-stocked library, where students learned how to navigate resources and effectively utilize research materials. Engaging discussions between faculty from both schools addressed curriculum innovation, teaching methods, and student engagement strategies.

The visit concluded with expressions of gratitude from Baithat's delegation, who praised the cordial atmosphere, professional interaction, and educational inspiration they experienced. This visit strengthened the friendly bond between the two schools and reflected a shared commitment to academic excellence and student development.

Innovations in Education

The AIMS Initiates Moral and Ideological Video Content Project in Strategic Collaboration with LinkWeb Studio

In a progressive stride towards its ongoing character-building endeavours, The AIMS has initiated a dynamic collaboration with LinkWeb Studio to develop a series of educational video productions centered on moral and character-related themes. This forward-thinking initiative seeks to engage the youth by addressing the deeper questions and dilemmas they encounter in today's evolving social landscape. The primary intent of this project is to bring forth content that resonates with the intellectual curiosities of the new generation, tackling pivotal topics such as morality, ideology, and ethical identity. Each video is thoughtfully designed to align with emotional frameworks of contemporary youth, thereby fostering meaningful reflection and dialogue. This initiative is not merely about content creation, it is a deliberate investment in the psychological and moral development of students. By exploring real-life moral questions and providing contextual guidance, the project aspires to cultivate well-rounded, value-driven individuals equipped to navigate the complexities of modern life with integrity and purpose. Through this collaboration, The AIMS reaffirms its commitment to nurturing not only academic excellence but also ethical consciousness and social responsibility among its students.

The AIMS School Pilot Launches Cutting-Edge LMS to Transform Education

Islamabad- The AIMS School & College has launched its state-of-the-art Learning Management System (LMS), marking a major step in modernizing and streamlining educational services

This landmark milestone was achieved with the great collaboration of our Technology Partner The Knowledge Foundation (TKF), Lahore.

The system has been pilot-launched with the Admission Module, enabling parents, students, teachers, and administrators to experience faster, transparent, and fully digitized admissions.

Key features include real-time application tracking, centralized information access, and efficient processing aligned with global best practices.

Expressing his satisfaction on this milestone achievement, Director TKF Dr. Aown Abbas assured continuous collaboration with The AIMS on this transformation journey.

"Our vision is to create a smart, future-ready learning environment," said Roofi Ali, Principal of The AIMS.

This LMS reflects our commitment to innovation and meaningful engagement.

We extend our sincere thanks to our technology partner, The Knowledge Foundation (TKF), Lahore, and a special thanks to Dr. Aown Abbas Naqvi, Director TKF, for his resolute support in making this initiative a reality.

Future phases will introduce additional modules covering academics, attendance, and assessments, further transforming the educational experience.

An Educational Activity about Hajj at The AIMS

An educational activity about Hajj was organized in the preschool classes of The AIMS School and College. During this unique activity, the little children wore symbolic eham and learned about the various rituals of Hajj. On this occasion, the concept of sacrifice (Qurbani) was also explained to the children, and they performed a symbolic sacrifice using toy animals. This activity aimed to instill in young minds a love for faith, the importance of worship, and the spirit of sacrifice. Scan the QR code to watch the video.

The AIMS Library Activities

Exciting New Additions to Our Library!

This month, 200 new books have been added to the Main Library at The AIMS School and College, Islamabad. The collection includes titles on Islamic Studies, History, Novels, Current Affairs, Geography, Poetry, and English Vocabulary. We encourage all students to explore these new resources and enrich their learning experience.

Kids' Library Upgradation in Full Swing!

This month, the upgradation of the Kids' Library at The AIMS School and College is in full swing. The project aims to create a more vibrant, child-friendly space filled with interactive learning resources and age-appropriate books. WRITINGS OF THE MONTH

I'M THE ONE

I was never a villain
but was made one,
When they abandoned me alone
in the blazing sun,
They think I lost them
but I found someone,
Not anybody else
but myself, the only one.

HIDDEN BATTLES

The dark night made me cry alot, suffer alot, suffocate alot,
I shed tears like a hidden fountain,
but wasn't it mean to me alot?
They call me quiet, serious and sensitive,
but aren't they the worst at this spot?
I will not blame anyone for this,
cuz ain't everyone stuck in a troubled plot?

The AIMS Community

Celebrating Women's Empowerment: Community Service Awards and Certificate Distribution Ceremony at The AIMS

The AIMS School & College proudly hosted an inspiring ceremony to acknowledge and celebrate the remarkable efforts of women in the domains of welfare and professional development. The event was graced by the distinguished presence of Lt. Gen (R) Syed Athar Ali, former Secretary of the Ministry of Defence, Government of Pakistan, who served as the chief guest. In his address, General Athar lauded the initiative and underscored the significance of empowering women in light of the teachings of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), the noble Ahul Bayt (AS), and the Quran. He emphasized that women, guided by these teachings, are fully capable of excelling across all spheres of life.

He further stated that women's active engagement in society is not only essential for community development but also instrumental in nurturing a morally strong future generation. "Muslim women are in no way inferior in talent and potential," he asserted. The CEO Syed Imtiaz Ali Rizvi also expressed his appreciation for the initiative, reaffirming the institution's commitment to advancing women's roles in every walk of life. He extended his congratulations to the organizing teams of AIMS and Local Community Organization team especially it's Principal for their dedication and efforts in making this development program a success.

As part of the ceremony, outstanding students were honored with certificates and awards in recognition of their dedication to community service and empowerment. These accolades symbolized the institution's ongoing encouragement of youth involvement in meaningful societal change.

Distinguished scholars, including Dr. Husnain Nadir and Mr. Samar Abbas Naqvi, also addressed the gathering, endorsing the initiative and stressing the importance of accelerating efforts toward the educational, professional, and moral upliftment of women.

The Principal of Local Community Organization thanked The AIMS team and assured for continuous future collaboration for such initiatives.

Principal The AIMS concluded the event by thanking all esteemed guests, including the chief guest, and acknowledging the hard work of the AIMS and Local Community Organization team especially it's Principal whose joint collaboration made the event possible.

The AIMS Participates in USWA Career Planning Cell Annual Fundraising Event

The AIMS School & College proudly participated in the Annual Fundraising Event organized by the Uswa Career Planning Cell (UCPC), Pakistan. The event proved to be a golden opportunity for The AIMS delegation to engage directly with the UCPC team and management, gaining valuable insights into their best practices for career guidance and educational support. The Principal of The AIMS lauded the efforts of UCPC in empowering students nationwide through comprehensive career planning services. During a meeting with Engineer Asif Hussain, Head of the Executive Committee of UCPC, the Principal expressed heartfelt appreciation for UCPC's unwavering support and fruitful collaboration with The AIMS. He emphasized that such partnerships are vital for equipping young minds with the knowledge, confidence, and resources needed to pursue their ambitions successfully. The AIMS remains committed to fostering meaningful alliances with leading educational organizations to ensure students receive the best possible guidance and opportunities for growth.

The AIMS School & College Celebrates Eid-ul-Azha with Service Staff in a Gesture of Gratitude and Compassion

On the auspicious occasion of Eid-ul-Azha, The AIMS School & College hosted a simple yet honorable celebration for its dedicated service staff, who continued their duties at the School and Hostel, away from their families. A warm Eid meal was shared, and the staff's efforts were recognized and appreciated in a heartfelt gesture that brought smiles and a sense of belonging to all in attendance.

This thoughtful initiative beautifully reflected the true essence of Eid, promoting the core values of gratitude, compassion, spiritual unity, inclusivity, care & respect, and humanity. Through this meaningful gesture, The AIMS School & College once again proved its commitment to nurturing not just minds, but hearts—creating an environment where every individual is valued and celebrated.

Bowing before falsehood is disgraceful; standing for truth is true devotion. Sacrifice, perseverance, patience, and trust in Allah are the path that leads to success. Let us learn these virtues from the school of Imam Hussain (AS) during the holy month of Muharram and mold our character, thoughts, and actions in the Hussaini spirit, so that our lives may also be dedicated to truth and justice.
